

Bologna (Italy)
October 25-30, 2025

28th European Conference on Artificial intelligence (ECAI-2025)

AISE 2025 - International Workshop on AI Systems for the Environment

<https://sites.google.com/view/aise25>

Organizers: Enrico Gerding, Simon Parsons, Roxana Rădulescu, Samarth Swarup, Zita Vale, Vahid Yazdanpanah

Scope: The workshop invites contributions from a broad range of AI fields, including agent-based modelling, reinforcement learning, game theory, and optimisation, all applied to pressing environmental issues.

Submission Guidelines

Participants are invited to submit a short paper (4-6 pages, plus one page for references, Springer LNCS format) describing their work on one or more of the topics relevant to the workshop. The paper should include a title, author names, and affiliations. It should clearly articulate the objectives of the research and provide a concise but thorough description of work related to the topics of the workshop. All submissions will be peer-reviewed by the organising committee and the program committee, with at least two independent reviews per paper.

Authors are requested to prepare their submissions using the LNCS Springer format. All papers must be submitted through: <https://easychair.org/my/conference?conf=aise2025>

Important Dates

- 12 June 2025: Deadline for paper submissions (23:59 Anywhere on Earth)
- 10 July 2025: Notification of acceptance
